

Certified Instructor Orientation Classes - 2014

The Concealed Carry Licensing Unit of the Office of Attorney General conducts orientation classes for the purpose of training individuals who have been certified as instructors for concealed carry handgun licensing in Kansas. The orientation classes are free and all certified instructors are encouraged to attend at least one class. Instructors certified after January 14, 2011 are required to attend an orientation class within the first 6 months following certification. Attendees must pre-register for the classes by submitting the registration form available on this website, or by emailing registration information to the Unit at ksagcc@ksag.org. Where available, please indicate if you wish to have lunch at the training site. Cost of the meal is paid at the cafeteria.
